$1 A YEAR STRICTLY IN ADVANCE

CUT OUT OF CROP IS DECLARED ON

LEXINGTON MEETING ACTS WITH SMALL REPRESENTATION SHOWN—THE RESOLUTIONS.

The cut-out was declared on at the meeting of tobacco growers in Lexington Monday, and a hard fight will be made from now on to prevent the raising of the crop this year. The Lexington Herald gives the following account of the meeting there, leading off with the resolutions, as follows:

"Be it resolved by the tobacco growers and representatives of the Burley in the city of Lexington, Ky., February 26, 1911.

"First—That the lack of organization among the farmers, and the low prices of tobacco, are destructive of Kentucky and all the Burley growing counties:

"Second—That the only remedy suggested is a cut-out of the 1911 crop;

"Third—That this convention, having considered the reports from various counties, both as to acres actually pledged and the general sentiments of the people, believes there is a large majority in favor of said cut-out, and we hereby vote and declare that no tobacco should be grown this year;

"Fourth—That we advise all growers to refrain from making preparations for a crop, and hereby request that any and all such preparations be reported to the headquarters of the union."

The convention of Burley tobacco growers of Kentucky, called at the courthouse yesterday afternoon to hear reports from fourteen counties suggested by the Burley Tobacco Society, with about 175 men present, passed a resolution declaring for a cut-out of the 1911 crop, only three dissenting.

Considerable enthusiasm was manifested at intervals in favor of the cut-out, but when the vote was taken the room was strangely quiet. Dozens of men did not vote, but a majority of those present arose to their feet in support of the resolution.

One of the men who voted against the resolution was Mr. Clarence Tate, a representative of Lincoln county. A few in said proposed graded common school district, herein consented to the establishment of the said proposed graded common school district, and have endorsed their consent in writing upon said petition, and it further appearing that Garland Singleton, Superintendent of common schools of Lincoln county, has consented to the establishment of the said proposed graded common school district, herein consented to the establishment of the said proposed graded common school district, and have endorsed their consent in writing upon the said petition as provided by law, and also the Lincoln county Board of Education has endorsed same by signing said petition and this day the said petitions appeared in open court and James P. Bailey, Judge of the Lincoln county court, agreed with them that the proposed graded common school district shall be as heretofore described, and the court being sufficiently advised it is now ordered and adjudge that W. L. McCarty Sheriff of Lincoln county, be and he is hereby and ordered to cause a poll to be opened in the town of McKinney, Ky., and an election to be there held on the 1st day of April, 1911, same being more than forty (40) days after the entry of this order, to take the sense of the legal white voters in said proposed graded common school district, whether there shall be levied and collected an annual tax of thirty (30) cents on each one hundred (100) dollars worth of taxable property assessed in said proposed graded common school district, belonging to white persons and corporations, and a poll tax of one dollar on each male inhabitant over 21 years of age, residing in said proposed graded common school district, for the purpose of maintaining a graded common school, in the said proposed graded common school district, and for the purpose of purchasing or erecting suitable buildings therefore as provided by the common school law. The officers of the election will also cause the said legal voters in the said proposed common school district to vote for five persons to be trustees for same, provided said tax shall be approved, by the said voters. The officers of the election will make due return of the result of said election at once after same is held. Attest: J. B. Cooper, Clerk Lincoln county court.

If the purpose of this meeting fails it can be laid at the door of the Burley Tobacco Society.

Garrard county was placed on the cut-out list. Chairman Gorman said that only a small per cent of the acreage had been pledged, but that the county was waiting on the convention and would act accordingly.

Lincoln county was passed after Mr. Tate's speech. The Lincoln county representative said:

"If the purpose of this meeting fails it can be laid at the door of the Burley Tobacco Society."

He said that his county had instructed him to pledge it if the convention was a joint meeting of the society and Union, in favor of a cut-out, but that the Burley Society had delayed action so long that it had prevented the pledge.

One of those astonishing features of the convention was the open statement of Chairman Bradley Wilson that the officials of the Burley Society themselves originated the cut-out movement, guaranteeing the initial expenses, and that the pledge adopted was submitted to the society's attorney and approved by President Le Roy himself. Mr. Wilson declared that these same officials, having now unloaded much of their tobacco, have now acquired cold feet and were standing in the way of endorsement of the cut-out.

Mr. Wilson also stated that he was in conference in Louisville early in December with C. C. Patrick, of Fayette county; John Larue of Bourbon, and U. G. Saunders, of Fleming, all members of the Burley Society Executive Committee, when they authorized him to contract a telephone account and take the necessary steps to organize the first cut-out convention, which was held here December 19 and yet if the cut-out fails the attitude of the society will be primarily responsible.

PITTSBURG CLUB PAYS HOWARD CANNITZ THE $200.

His many friends here will be glad to know that Howard Cannitz of Hustonville, received his bonus of $200 from the Pittsburg National League club due from last season, notwithstanding the newspaper reports to the contrary. The differences between the popular young pitcher and the club have been patched up, and he has signed a contract for this season and his friends believe that he will have the best year of his career.

Many Changes

Guilford, Mo., Feb. 17
Editor Interior Journal:—

Enclosed you will find draft for one dollar for which you will please continue my paper to its present address another year. Having been a subscriber for more than a third of a century, also being a native of Lincoln county born and raised near McKinney, can't do without my home paper. It has kept me in touch with people and associates that I mingled with fifty years ago.

However have made a number of visits back to the old homestead in that time. The last visit I made was four years ago last June. I recognized that a great many changes had taken place. The older people, the larger part of them and crossed over on the other side, also a goodly number of the younger ones, while many had moved to other parts of the world. Consequently I encountered a great many strange faces. Yet occasionally I would meet with an old familiar countenance, such as Dr. Ed. Alcorn, Geo. M. Givens, W. R. Williams, Arch Fry, J. J. McKinney, and in around Hustonville, Dr. J. F. Peyton, Peter Carter, T. H. Givens and A. D. Root from Turnersville, Stanford.

Of course there are a few of the old timers left but as I have to read this letter to my wife before mailing it I will refrain from calling their names.

Yours Respectfully

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving and Some Stanford People Know How To Save It.

Many Stanford people take their lives in their hands by neglecting their kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill-health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Dean's Kidney Pills. The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

Mr. B. Walter, Hill St., Lancaster, Ky., says: "I never fail to praise Dean's Kidney Pill; when I have the opportunity, as they are certainly an excellent remedy. I have not been without a supply in the house for years. Whenever my back becomes lame and painful, a few doses brings me instant relief. At one time I feared that I had serious kidney trouble. The Kidney secretions were unnatural and gave unmistakable evidence of disordered kidneys. At that time it was my good fortune to hear of Deans Kidney Pills and I began their use. In a short time my kidneys were restored to normal condition."

AND SERVANT'S HOUSE BURNED DOWN ON McROBERTS PLACE.

A servant's house behind the residence of P. M. McRoberts caught fire Tuesday night and was burned to the ground. The blaze was discovered about seven o'clock, and many thought that it was the residence on fire, so brightly did the conflagration illuminate the sky. The local fire department responded, but there was no chance to save the building so all efforts were devoted to preventing the fire from spreading to the residence.

The blaze is supposed to have originated by clothes hanging to dry in front of a fire, becoming ignited.

The building burned was a very old one, having been on the place for many years. The loss was but slight. Of course everybody who could went to the fire.

GRAND JURY GETS DOWN TO WORK

INVESTIGATING CHICKEN FIGHTING AND SALE OF WHISKY IN COUNTY—OTHER COURT NEWS.

Circuit court adjourned over Wednesday, Washington's Birthday, the grand jury being in session, however, considering various matters before it. It is understood that the grand jury is looking into the report that some of the "boys" have been getting together once in a while and testing the pugnacious qualities of their different game roosters. A gentleman who seriously objects to such unlawful pastime, though it is said he admires having engaged in such himself in his younger days, seems to have played Sherlock Holmes on the participants and while grand jury deliberations are of course not made public, it is said that he appeared before the inquisitorial body and furnished a list of names of those suspected of being present at one of the sessions.

The cockfighting question is said to have been a trial of the respective merits of the Kentucky breed of game roosters and those of Tennessee, and it is said that the Kentucky, whose humor was upheld by the Stamford chickens, came out with flying colors.

HON. CHARLES A. HARDIN,

of Mercer County

Nearly every newspaper editor will agree that Editor Desha Breckinridge was very right when he said the following in the Lexington Herald the other day:

There is a phase of newspaper work which sometimes oppresses us. It was epitomized in a striking dissertation by the Hon. Edward P. Farrell, who had a brilliant career as lawyer and newspaper man. To summarize his conclusions, reached as a result of his experience, he said that a newspaper might praise every member of a man's family, publish every notice of every entertainment which his wife or daughters gave or to which they were invited; describe their gowns as the latest creations of Worth and their forms as the perfection of the handiwork of the Most High; suppress the mention of any disagreeable incident in the life of any member of the family, even unto the third or fourth generation; give the men credit for brilliancy and high purpose and never a word of appreciation. Then some morning publish a two line item that a third cousin, twice removed, who had been drunkard and a loafer for years had been arrested and indicted and every member of the family would get mad and the head of the family stop making the paper. A little bit exaggerated but only a little, is this comment of that versatile and brilliant man.

WHY IS THIS THUS?

There is a great big screw loose in the financial machinery at Frankfort under the sweet-scented Republican administration. The sheriffs have all settled and paid in the cent tax collected for school purposes, and yet word comes that they are unable to send the money due the teachers of this county. What have they done with the money? And what right have they to use the school money for other purpose than that for which it was levied and collected? None whatever. —Flemingsburg Time Democrat.

THE VOTING AT THE ART EXHIBIT.

(Contributed.)

Interest ran high on the voting at Womans' Improvement Club Tuesday night at the "Art Exhibit." The Club had stated in a previous issue that every visitor to the exhibit would have the privilege of casting one vote for the article in the room they admired the most and that deserved the prize according to their judgment from three standpoints "most difficult, and excellent of its kind." The club had in mind several educational principals in proposing this prize. One to secure a close examination of each article in the room, 2 to make every one in the community a part of the enterprise, 3 to detect the people who admired the different lines of work, 4 to introduce to the public the many and varied talented people in our county, 5 to emphasize art as a branch of the Woman's Improvement Club of Stanford. 6 to satisfy those who might not agree with the judge who awarded the prizes of merit given by the Club.

It was never the purpose of the Club to make any discrimination of artist but simply to secure scrutiny and close study of their work.

It was very interesting to see how the 243 voters were distributed and it may explain to some why they did not get the "popular prize." The voters were taken carefully by the president of the club who was a disinterested party, or rather an impartial servant of the people not having any work of her own on exhibition. The name of each voter the article voted for and the number of it, as well as the name, was carefully registered and checked off and counted. The counts ran as follows, Mrs. Sam Embry's embroidered counterpane 34; Harris Coleman's rock of ages 19; wolf, 7; 6 roses 1; Mrs. Bartley's waist No. 3, received 24; Mrs. Charlotte Warren's chow platter No. 1, 23; Jean Paxton's Pastel No. 5, 15 votes; Florence Carter No. 5, 9; votes, No. 2, 2 votes. No 4 2 votes; Mrs. Fowler's embroidery sheets three towels, 1, No. 3, 7 votes; No. 4, 2 votes; Lyle Cooper's No. 5 5 votes; No. 3, 1 vote No. 1, 2 votes.

Mrs. Shelton Saufley's centerpiece 8 votes; Mary Phillips' Brazilian point lace collar 6 votes; Mrs. Emma Prentiss' dress 4 votes; Mary Burdette's picture 4 votes. Many others received one and two votes. The following business firms contributed to the enterprise:

Section 4.—That the franchise or privilege provided in this ordinance when said contract is entered into shall not be construed as being in any way exclusive or as preventing the city council of the city of Stanford from providing for the sale of similar franchise or privileges to other persons, companies or corporations and this limitation shall be inserted in any contract entered into between the city of Stanford and such persons, corporation or company.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IX.—First Quarter, For Feb. 26, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, I Kings xxi, 11-28.
Memory Verses, 17-19—Golden Text, Luke xii, 15—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

In the last lesson Elijah was commissioned to anoint Eliash as prophet in his stead. He found him plowing with the twelfth of twelve yoke of oxen and cast his mantle upon him. Elijah bade farewell to his father and mother, prepared a feast for the people, cooking the flesh of a yoke of oxen with the instruments of the oxen, thus burning the bridge behind him, and went after Elijah and ministered unto him (chapter xii, 19-21), and we shall see a sequel to such whole heartedness in our next lesson.

The story of chapter xx we shall have for a lesson on March 10; therefore we pass it by for the present, and Elijah does not appear in it.

In the lesson of today we come to a story of the greatest possible cruel heartlessness on the part of Ahab and Jezebel, with a prediction of the doom of each from the Lord through Elijah, which was, like all the Lord's predictions, literally fulfilled.

A man called Naboth had a vineyard hard by the palace of Ahab, which the king coveted, as he said, for a garden of herbs because it was near his house. The king offered him the worth of it in money or a better vineyard in its stead, but Naboth refused to let the king have it, saying, "The Lord forbid it me that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee" (verse 3). It is refreshing to meet a man who seeks no favors from and has no fear of even a king.

What a contrast to Naboth is this despotic king, who, because he cannot have what he wants, goes home and to bed, turns away his face and will not eat. How amazingly small some great men are! And how noble are some in lowly circumstances! A vineyard makes me think of the vine of John xv, and Naboth's clinging to the vine which was the inheritance of his fathers is in striking contrast to the readiness with which many preachers and teachers of today give up all that their fathers held dear concerning the true vine. May we prove ourselves abiding branches in the vine and jealously guard the vineyard from all evil ones, even though it cost our life or our position to do this.

The garden of herbs for which the king said that he wanted the vineyard brings to mind the saying concerning evildoers and workers of iniquity in Psalms xxxvii, 1-2: "They shall soon be cut down like the grass and wither as the green herb."

In Jezebel we see those who, like Herodias, do not scruple to take off the earth any one who happens to be in their way, true children of the devil, who has the power of death and was a murderer from the beginning (Heb. 13; 14; John 8: 44). "I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite" (verse 7) were her words to Ahab, as if she owned it and Naboth, too, and could do as she pleased. Her true lord and master, the devil, once said to the Lord Jesus as he showed him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them, "All these things will I give thee if thou wilt fall down and worship me" (Matt. iv, 8, 9). Because He would not worship him he proceeded to kill Him, which he finally did.

So Jezebel proceeded forthwith to kill Naboth, which she did by means of two sons of Belial who lied, like their father, and others who did her bidding. Afraid not to, I suppose, lest they, too, might lose their lives at the hands of this murderer. Note their false accusations of Naboth: "He blasphemed God and the king." What an awful association of the living and true God with one who represented the devil, and yet when Jesus Christ was on earth, God manifested in the flesh, his enemies told Him that He had a devil (John vii, 20; viii, 52; x, 20). They also raised up false witnesses against Him who laid to His charge things that He knew not (Ps. xxxv, 11). We are still in an enemy's country and cannot expect better treatment than our Master received and must remember that all who live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution (II Tim. iii, 12).

With what seeming triumph Jezebel says to Ahab: "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth, * * * for Naboth is not alive, but dead" (verse 15). But the word of the Lord came again to Elijah with a message for Ahab and Jezebel: "Thus saith the Lord: In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, whilom dogs licked thy blood, even thine. * * * The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezebel" (verses 19-23). And so it literally came to pass (22-28; II Kings ix, 36).

Whosoever a man soweth that shall also reap. Her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. How much she hath glorified herself and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her (Gal. vi, 7; Rev. viii, 5-7). What an epitaph upon these two, "Ahab, who did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the Lord, when Jezebel his wife stirred up" (verse 26). How far from peaceful the manner of their death, but what about their condition ever since! The words of Jesus, 23-26; Rev. xvi, 10, 11, are peculiarly suggestive.

It will be welcome news to dyspeptics to learn of a remedy that, in the opinion of Dr. Caldwell, is a sure remedy for dyspepsia and all forms of stomach trouble, and, better still, it is guaranteed to do so. The remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint.

We all know the value of pure peppermint in indigestion, and add to this some exceptional laxative ingredients and you have a truly wonderful remedy. Mr. T. W. Worthy of Perryville, Ky., got to point where he could not even eat or digest vegetables and after many years of seeking he found the cure in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint. Mr. Rudy Kasper of Moline, Ill., was in the same bad predicament with his stomach, took Syrup Peppermint and his stomach was cured. Hundreds of others would gladly testify.

It is a guaranteed cure for indigestion.
